LEON LEVY CENTER FOR BIOGRAPHY

2018-2019 BERNSTEIN FELLOWSHIPS

The Leon Levy Center for Biography is pleased to announce its 2018-2019 Bernstein Fellowships, which will be awarded to biographers in residence at the Center who are writing first-time, full-length books on American history.

One fellowship of $72,000 is available. The application period for 2019-2020 begins on October 15, 2018. Each fellowship includes:

- A stipend of $72,000
- A year’s membership in the Leon Levy Center for Biography
- Access to the Center’s extensive collections of primary sources
- Opportunities for workshops, seminars, and other events

The Bernstein Fellowship is open to biographers of any nationality, who have not previously published a full-length biography. The fellowship is expected to begin in September 2019.

For more information and to apply, please visit the Leon Levy Center for Biography website at www.levysociety.org/biography.

The Bernstein Fellowship is made possible by the generosity of the Bernard and Ruth Bernstein Foundation.
